

27th Annual Spring Nature Festival

“Reading the Season” Warriors’ Path State Park

Kingsport, Tennessee

Friday - Sunday

April 21, 22 & 23, 2006

Delve a little deeper into nature’s wonders this spring. Discover the variety of nature in your state park. Come away with a deeper understanding of the living world of springtime. Enjoy lasting memories of the scenic beauty of Warriors’ Path.

This weekend you can participate in seminars taught by professionals, and walks guided by trained naturalists. Each will highlight a different area of natural history, and a different part of the park. Each walk and each seminar will be a part of a natural pathway of discovery.

- ### Schedule of Events
- FRIDAY, APRIL 21
- 7:00 PM ANIMAL TRACKING AND SIGNS - Our fellow creatures leave a variety of living stories. Learn to read tracks, dens, and other signs of wildlife activity. Join Ranger Marty Silver at the Recreation Building.
- 8:00 PM NIGHT HABITS WALK - Ranger Marty Silver of Warriors’ Path will guide us on a night discovery walk. Meet at the Rec. Building Parking lot and we will carpool
- SATURDAY, APRIL 22
- 7:30 AM BIRDLIFE SEMINAR - Gain new insights into the lives and habits of our common birds. Dr. Gary Wallace of Milligan College, and Tom McNeil, of Northeast State, will share their deep understanding of spring birds. Lecture will be held at the Recreation Building.
- 8:30 AM BIRD WALK - Tom McNeil and Dr. Gary Wallace will help us understand and identify spring birds and bird behavior. Meet at the Recreation Building Porch.
- 9:30 AM NATURE PHOTOGRAPHY SEMINAR - Jeff Sturgill of Ritz Camera will give us practical tips for better photography outdoors. This lecture will be held at the Recreation Building.
- 10:30 AM SPRING SCENIC WALK - Try the skills you learned at the photo seminar, or just enjoy the spring scenery. Jammie Mize, Davy Crockett Birthplace State Park Naturalist, and Fred Hilton, Bays Mountain Park Naturalist will be our guides on this ridgeline hike. Meet at the small picnic area parking lot across the road from the Marina.
- 11:30 AM PLANTS & POLLINATORS SEMINAR - Don Holt of Greene County 4-H and Bill Cawood, Naturalist from Natural Tunnel State Park, will acquaint us with spring plants and the butterflies and other creatures that pollinate them. Meet at the Recreation Building.
- 12:30 PM PLANTS & POLLINATORS WALK - Our guides, Bill Cawood and Don Holt, will bring us to a bright display of spring wildflowers and their amazing insect pollinators on this ramble through Sinking Waters wetland. Meet at the Rec. Building parking lot, and we'll carpool.
- 1:00 PM STREAM ECOLOGY SEMINAR - Gary Barrigar of Boone Watershed Partnership will help us discover the incredible life of flowing waters. This lecture will be held at the Recreation Building.
- 1:30 PM CREEK WALK - Walk through the clear cool waters of Fall Creek, to experience a living community. Wear old clothes and sneakers, and meet leader Gary Barrigar at the Recreation Building parking lot. We'll carpool to the creek.
- SATURDAY, CONTINUED
- 3:00 PM GEOLOGY SEMINAR - Bob Whittemore of General Shale, and Ingrid Luffman, of ETSU, will offer special insights into the importance of those rocks beneath the spring landscape. This lecture will be held at the Recreation Building.
- 4:00 PM GEOLOGY WALK - Take a short walk along a stony river bank, and learn the dynamic stories of a changing land. Start our hike with Ingrid Luffman and Bob Whittemore at the Pool Parking Lot.
- 5:00 PM TREES AND WILDFLOWERS SEMINAR - Come learn to observe spring trees and plants. This lecture will be taught by Lana Hamilton of Northeast State, and Dr. Tim McDowell of ETSU. Meet at the Recreation Building.
- 6:00 PM TREE & PLANT LIFE WALK - Come walk with Dr. Tim McDowell and Lana Hamilton beneath the fresh green trees of this new season. Meet at the Overflow Campground.
- 7:00 PM SUNSET WALK - There's not a better place to observe the land than in these old fields and forested ridges. Come watch the evening darken the spring landscape, in one of the richest wildlife habitats in our park. Our guest leaders will be Kevin Hamed of VA Highlands Community College, and Brad Jones of Winged Deer Park. Meet at the Pool Parking Lot, and we'll carpool.
- 8:30 PM SPRING NIGHT SKIES - Gather beneath the dark sky and learn the lore of the spring stars. Bob Van Gundy of Mt. Empire Community College and Natural Tunnel State Park will share his knowledge and his astronomical tools. Meet at the Pool Parking Lot.
- SUNDAY, APRIL 23
